Dear Sir:-

Condition plays a most important part in the value of coins, therefore we are unable to tell exactly just what the coins you mention would be worth without seeing them. However the prices range as follows:-

One-half cent piece (Copper), dated 1804. From ten to fifty cents.

U. S. Gold Dollar, dated 1852. From two to three dollars.

Half dime, date 1853. From ten cents to one dollar.

Trusting this will give you some idea of the value of these pieces, I am,

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your letter of
July 2 with the information regarding the coins.
I am sending the information on to our correspondents and it is possible that you will hear from them. Mrs.
Lillian Vermillion of Vancouver, Washington, wrote about the U. S. Gold dollar of 1852, and Mr. J. E.
Johnson of Portland, Oregon, about the other two coins.

Very truly yours,

P. W. Washington

Attention - Mr. J. F. Jameson

Dear Sir:

Your invitation to review two German titles by Ebengreuth and Friedensburg is at hand. I regret that it will not be convenient for me to do so, but I think that if you care to refer the matter to the Secretary, Mr. Sydney P. Noe, he might be willing to consider it.

Very truly yours,

Curator
